Address: Southwest corner of Benedict Canyon Drive and Hutton Drive
 Name: Benedict Canyon Fire Alarm Box
 Year built: 1900
 Architectural style: Not Applicable

Context 1:

Context:	Other Context, 1850-1980
Sub context:	No Sub-context
Theme:	Event or Series of Events, 1850-1980
Sub theme:	No SubTheme
Property type:	Other
Property sub type:	No Sub-Type
Criteria:	A/1/1
Status code:	QQQ
Reason:	In 1900, the City installed 194 fire alarm boxes throughout Los Angeles so that citizens could sound the alarm if a fire was spotted. They predated the period when every home and business had a telephone and when fire engines and trucks were equipped with two-way radios. The boxes were connected to a dispatch center and were used by police officers and firemen as well as citizens. When a newer version was installed in 1957, the older boxes were supposed to have been removed. However, a few still remain, but are inoperable. There is no context in which to evaluate these boxes, and more information is needed on the number remaining.

Address: Moraga Drive at Bellagio Road
 Name: Moraga Drive Landscaped Median
 Year built: 1932
 Architectural style: Not Applicable

Context 1:

Context:	Residential Development and Suburbanization, 1850-1980
Sub context:	No Sub-context
Theme:	Automobile Suburbanization, 1908-1937
Sub theme:	Suburban Planning and Development, 1908-1937
Property type:	Tract/subdivision feature
Property sub type:	Landscaped Median
Criteria:	A/1/1 & C/3/3
Status code:	5S3
Reason:	This landscaped median provides a monumental entrance to the Moraga Drive neighborhood. However, it appears to meet local criteria only and may not meet significance thresholds for National Register or California Register eligibility. The monument signs at the south end of the median do not appear to be original and therefore should not be considered character-defining features.
